Oct 28, 1946 - Feb 28, 2017 Samuel Ledbetter McDavid passed away surrounded by his wife, children and close family on Tuesday, February 28, 2017. A lifelong Birmingham resident, Mr. McDavid attended Shades Valley High School, where he became the rhythm guitarist for String and the Beans, a musical group with considerable success throughout the Southeast. Later incarnated as The Reflections, the band toured the southern states, performing covers and original material. Mr. McDavid received a BS in Commerce and Business Administration from the University of Alabama in 1970. He then pursued a career at R.P. McDavid Company, Inc., a family-run appliance and electronics distributorship, of which he eventually became Executive Vice President and co-owner with his brother Lee. Mr. McDavid married Barbara Ann Walters of Homewood on September 2, 1972 and together they had five children. He served in the US Air National Guard and was an avid golfer and Crimson Tide football fan. He was preceded in death by his mother, Antoinette Brooks McDavid (June 26, 1986) and father, Robert Patton McDavid III (Oct. 6, 1999). He is survived by his wife, Barbara Walters McDavid; children, Samuel L. McDavid Jr., Katherine McDavid, Linda McDavid Merry (Michael), Sister Mary Magdalene (formerly Antoinette Brooks McDavid), and Robert Patton McDavid V (Anna); grandchild, Eva Marie Tucker; brothers, Robert Patton McDavid IV, Lee Allen McDavid (Madeline), Michael Morrow McDavid (Helen), and Scott Haas McDavid (Beth). Mr. McDavid was a gentle soul and devoted family man who loved to cut a rug and was always the life of the party. He will be greatly missed. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and may Your Perpetual Light shine upon him. The visitation will be held Saturday, March 4th from 10:00-11:00 at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, Homewood. Funeral Mass to follow at 11:00.

Barbara,ironically we were talking about Sam and Jim winning the championship at your country club. We were sad to learn that you had lost him. What a loving couple you were. Please accept our sympathy and good memories of our long ago friendship. Barbara Bennett

Dear McDavid Family,

I knew Sam through R.P. McDavid Co in Mobile back during the 70's. He was always a great guy and fun to be around, and a big help to his dealers in Mobile. May God bless you all and know that one day we will be reunited with our loved ones through God.
