
George H. Trawick

The Honorable Judge George H. Trawick of Ozark passed away Wednesday, Dec. 7, 2005, after an extended illness. He was 59. Funeral services will be at Bethel Assembly of God in Ariton at 2 p.m. today, Dec. 9, with the Revs. Robert Hamilton and Jeff Downing officiating. Interment will follow in the church cemetery. His body will be placed in the church one hour prior to the service. Flowers will be accepted or memorial contributions may be made to the Kiwanis Club of Ozark.

Judge Trawick was born Oct. 8, 1946, in Homewood. He graduated from Shades Valley High School followed by Birmingham Southern College. He attained his bachelor degree from Troy State. He graduated from Cumberlin School of Law and entered the practice of law with his father in Ariton. He was in the Army Reserve. He was a member and past president of Dale County Bar Association. A member and past president of Ozark Lions Club. A member and past president of Ozark Kiwanis Club. A member of Ozark Masonic Lodge No. 349. He was a prosecutor for the city of Ozark. He was a prosecutor for the city of Daleville. He was the municipal judge for the city of Ozark. He was a board member of The Boys and Girls Club. A lifelong dream was realized when he ran and was elected Dale County District Judge, a position to which he was dedicated even during his struggle with cancer. He will be remembered and grieved by all who knew him and came in contact with him!

A special thank you to Dr. Scott McAllister and the nurses of Dothan Hematology and Oncology.

Judge Trawick was preceded in death by his father, George Trawick Sr.

Survivors include his wife of 14 years, Debbie Trawick; his mother, Irma Trawick; his sister and brother-in-law, Sandy and Ray Kiely; two stepsons, Donnie and Derek Portwood; one stepdaughter, Dorrie Portwood; four grandchildren, Sean Portwood, Colin Portwood, Brayden Portwood and Kody Snyder; brother-in-law, Ricky Laney and his wife, Kristy; sister-in-law, Carolyn Masters; uncle and aunts, Neal and Vera Trawick, Jack and Carolyn Trawick and Ross Trawick; mother-in-law, Naomi Rarig; Ray Jr. and Trish Kiely, John and Jenny Kiely, Ruth and Jeff Bontrager and several other nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles.

The pallbearers will be Charles Moring, Bill Kominos, Johnny Miller, Robert G. Robison, Capt. John Givens, Randy Shields, Doug Trawick and Mike Scarlett.

Fuqua-Bankston Funeral Home in Ozark, (334) 774-4551, is in charge of arrangements.

Published in Dothan Eagle from December 8 to December 9, 2005
