
Leon McCoy Whitmire

July 1, 1947-July 9, 2015 Lee Whitmire, age 68, died in his home death by his parents, Judge L. McCoy Whitmire, Sr. and Mildred sister, Mildred Rebecca Edens of Birmingham and his niece, Ang graduate of Shades Valley High School, he attended the Univers Bachelor of Arts in Government/History at the University of Texas degree at the Birmingham School of Law in 1992, where he serv National Convention of Sigma Delta Kappa. From 1968 to 1982, J.J. Newberry's, Yaring's, and the National Textbook Company in Birmingham and worked for O'Neal Steel until his retirement on July 1, 2015. Le lifelong love of reading, music, history, sports, and Springer Spaniels. With a kee an amused but abiding interest in the world around him. He was a kind and gen by his many cousins, nieces and nephews. Lee's family and friends are invited t in Mountain Brook in Claypool Commons on the 14th of August from 5:30 to 7:0 celebration of a life well-lived. It is suggested that any memorials be made to the charity of choice . Any communications may be directed to Angie Piechocki-Ge MD wkhawley@aol.com. "Let me live in my house by the side of the road and b

Published in The Birmingham News from July 29 to Aug. 2, 2015
